

Proclamation

by

Matthew G. Bevin
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

- WHEREAS, Apprenticeships are a time-tested method of passing on essential skills from one generation of skilled craftsmen to another; and
- WHEREAS, In order to make Kentucky the manufacturing hub of excellence in America, we recognize the value of apprenticeships and their ability to help us achieve this goal; and
- WHEREAS, Apprenticeships are an important component to career readiness and building a workforce that can meet the demand for jobs in our state; and
- WHEREAS, Nearly 3,000 Kentuckians are currently involved in apprenticeship programs in approximately 1,100 companies; acquiring job skills in industries such as manufacturing, health care and construction; and
- WHEREAS, Kentucky recently launched the "Kentucky Trained. Kentucky Built." campaign to expand opportunities for Kentuckians to acquire on-the-job training, a nationally recognized skills certification and a pathway to a well-paying career; and
- WHEREAS, By re-committing ourselves to fully embracing the power of apprenticeships, we are placing ourselves in the best position to move Kentucky forward;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MATTHEW G. BEVIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim the week of November 13th-19th, 2016, as

APPRENTICESHIP WEEK

in Kentucky.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort the 10th day of November, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Sixteen and in the 225th year of the Commonwealth.
